Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Helen Loebs has devoted over 40 years of service to the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Helen was first hired as a temporary clerk-typist on January 3, 1963, and in 1966, became the manager of the Unemployment Insurance file room; and,

Whereas, Helen will retire as the office supervisor on March 28, 2003, after 40 years of continuous employment with the Department of Labor; and,

Whereas, Helen will now have more time to attend craft shows, create her seasonal floral arrangements and make her delicious fudge; and,

Whereas, Helen and her husband, Melvin, will be able to plan some interesting bus trips and share more in the lives of their adult children, Sheila and John; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many accomplishments of this employee:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 28, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join with Helen's family, friends, and co-workers to wish her a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
